

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Institutional Equity

TITLE IX PREGNANCY RESOURCE

The University of Arizona is committed to creating and maintaining an environment free from discrimination. Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 protects individuals from discrimination based on sex in any educational program or activity operated by recipients of federal financial assistance.

As required by Title IX, The University of Arizona does not discriminate based on sex in its educational programs or activities, including in admission and employment. Discrimination based on a student's pregnancy or related conditions is prohibited.

The Title IX Coordinator can coordinate specific actions to prevent sex discrimination and ensure a student's equal access to the University's educational program and activities.

The University of Arizona Title IX Coordinator may be contacted at titleix@arizona.edu.

The University of Arizona Global Campus (UAGC) is committed to creating and maintaining an environment free from discrimination. Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 protects individuals from discrimination based on sex in any educational program or activity operated by recipients of federal financial assistance.

As required by Title IX, UAGC does not discriminate based on sex in its educational programs or activities, including in admission and employment. Discrimination based on a student's pregnancy or related conditions is prohibited.

The UAGC Title IX Coordinator can coordinate specific actions to prevent sex discrimination and ensure a student's equal access to UAGC's educational program and activities.

The UAGC Title IX Coordinator may be contacted at titleix@uagc.edu.

A current version of this resource, as well as additional information, is available on the Office of Institutional Equity website, equity.arizona.edu